

Roanoke Charitable Partners

*Click the charitable organization’s name below to visit the website.

Charity	Mission	Donation Options
Angels of Assisi	Angels of Assisi is changing the role of an animal shelter to include resources, programs, and services to benefit the pets in our communities and the people who love them. We are an independent, nonprofit animal welfare organization serving SW Virginia and West Virginia. Along with our Adoption Center and Farm Sanctuary, we offer a Community Pet Hospital, Rural Veterinary Care, Cruelty Investigations, Disaster Response, and a Safety Net Program for those needing temporary help due to domestic violence or emergency situations.	One time, Monthly, Weekly, Bi-weekly, quarterly, or yearly
Apple Ridge Farm	Apple Ridge Farm transforms the lives of our community’s underserved children and families through engagement in unparalleled educational, cultural and outdoor experiences. As we grow the wellbeing of the underserved communities in the Roanoke and New River Valleys through the exploration and execution of environmental sustainability and urban agriculture, leadership and success mentoring, and exposure to outdoor experiences.	One time
Black Father Family	The Black Father Family Initiative creates a space for Black fathers to find meaningful connections, support and resources to promote the health, well-being and success of children, families and communities.	One time, Monthly, Bi-Monthly, Quarterly, Semi-Annually, annually
Blue Ridge Literacy	At Blue Ridge Literacy, we are committed to providing an environment of mutual respect where equal employment opportunities are available to all applicants and volunteers without regard to sex, race, color, nationality, religion, political belief, age, sexual orientation, gender identity, disability or veteran status. Blue Ridge Literacy believes that diversity and inclusion is critical to our success as a local nonprofit, and we seek to recruit, develop and retain the most talented people from a diverse candidate pool.	One time (Pay pal)

This list of charitable organizations is for informational purposes and are not endorsed by Virginia Tech. Please visit the charitable organization websites to determine if you wish to donate directly to them.

Charity	Mission	Donation Options
Blue Ridge Mountains Council	Our mission is to prepare young people to make ethical and moral choices over their lifetimes by instilling in them the values of the Scout Oath and Scout Law. To achieve our mission, we create innovative programs and evolve existing ones that respond to the needs of today’s families and deliver them through dedicated volunteers in communities across the nation.	One time or Monthly
Bradley Free Clinic	Since 1974, Bradley Free Clinic has been partnering with high-quality professional volunteers to provide compassionate and comprehensive healthcare services to underserved residents of the Roanoke Valley and surrounding areas. To be eligible for the no-cost services Bradley provides, a person's income must be at or below 300% of the Federal Poverty Level (FPL) or enrolled in Virginia Medicaid. Bradley does not charge our patients for any of the services we provide.	One time or weekly on Monday, every other week, monthly on the 1st, 10th, 15th, 20th, reoccurring monthly, or yearly
Central and Western Virginia Chapter - Alzheimer's Association	The Alzheimer's Association leads the way to end Alzheimer's and all other dementia — by accelerating global research, driving risk reduction and early detection, and maximizing quality care and support.	One time
CHIP	Child Health Investment Partnership changes the lives of underserved children and their families through access to comprehensive healthcare services and community resources.	One time
Commonwealth Catholic Charities	Since 1923, Commonwealth Catholic Charities has provided life-changing human services to vulnerable individuals and families throughout the Commonwealth of Virginia. CCC offers quality and compassionate human services to all people, especially the most vulnerable, regardless of faith.	One time
Family Services of Roanoke Valley	Our Mission Statement: Family Service of Roanoke Valley supports individuals and families as they journey toward lives of emotional wellness, healthy relationships and a future filled with hope.	One time, Weekly, Monthly, Quarterly, Semi-Annually, Annually

This list of charitable organizations is for informational purposes and are not endorsed by Virginia Tech. Please visit the charitable organization websites to determine if you wish to donate directly to them.

Charity	Mission	Donation Options
Fralin Free Clinic	We serve individuals who are currently at risk of being homeless, experiencing homelessness, and those transitioning into permanent housing in the Roanoke Valley. We have a community health worker on staff. The Fralin Free Clinic, a ministry of the Roanoke Rescue Mission, operates under a volunteer Medical Director and numerous other volunteer healthcare providers. The staff and volunteers provide the care and services an individual needs to improve their quality of life. Our providers focus on a holistic approach for each person that walks through the door.	One time or monthly
Good Samaritan	Since 1992, Good Sam has been the only non-profit, community-based hospice serving southwest Virginia. No other local hospice offers you more comprehensive services than Good Sam. We provide the highest quality care with the most options, expertise, support and compassion. Every decision we make is guided by our values and mission, with the goal of providing the best care, not gaining the most profit.	One time or Monthly
Harm Reduction Coalition	National Harm Reduction Coalition aims to build capacity for evidence-based harm reduction strategies and cultivate leadership among people who use drugs. We know that our collective impact is strongest when people who are directly affected by the War on Drugs are at the center. We meet communities where they're at to build supportive environments for harm reduction programs and people who use drugs.	One time or Monthly
Healing Strides of Virginia	Healing Strides provides equine-assisted services to individuals ages 4-84 living with physical, emotional, and cognitive disabilities in the Greater Roanoke Valley area.	One time or monthly
Hope Tree Family Services	Through God's love, we foster hope by empowering families, youth, and adults to lead fulfilling lives.	One time, weekly, every other week, monthly, every other month, quarterly, every 6 months, and annually

This list of charitable organizations is for informational purposes and are not endorsed by Virginia Tech. Please visit the charitable organization websites to determine if you wish to donate directly to them.

Charity	Mission	Donation Options
Huddle Up Moms	We know it takes a village to raise a family, and we want to provide women the resources they need locally to build that village. We believe in empowering women to prioritize their well-being and in connecting mothers to the support they need to be happy, healthy, and confident. Our goal is to sustain a community-based organization that supports women on their motherhood journeys in Southwest Virginia. Huddle Up Moms empowers all mothers in the Roanoke and New River Valleys through education, meaningful connections, and community support.	One time, monthly or annually
Human Kind	Human Kind is a non-profit that wraps around local families struggling to overcome challenges associated with poverty – financial coaching, transportation, childcare, foster care, and parenting support. Human Kind meets people where they are in life and help them chart a course to achieve their goals and find stability.	One time or Monthly
Humble Hustle	Take "U" out of the equation, add in a focus towards serving others, and you'll begin to fortify your hustler spirit and humble mentality. We aim to empower the world to use every gift they have been given to help someone. We believe that our initiatives and programs provide exposure to new ways of thinking and a culture rooted in love.	One time
I Heart SE	I Heart SE is building a better neighborhood through love, positivity, and connectedness. I Heart SE started with a group of neighbors seeking to spread a little positivity and has grown to be a vibrant and powerful force for good. From these earliest days, we have sought community transformation by sparking joy and fostering inclusiveness. We continue this mission into the present as we seek to build a stronger community through love and connectedness. Your support today helps us continue and expand our efforts to improve Southeast Roanoke. Any amount helps us make this a better place to live, work, and play!	One time, monthly, quarterly, or annually

This list of charitable organizations is for informational purposes and are not endorsed by Virginia Tech. Please visit the charitable organization websites to determine if you wish to donate directly to them.

Charity	Mission	Donation Options
Kids Soar	Kids Soar is a faith-based organization whose focus is on empowering children and families in the Roanoke Valley to end the cycle of poverty in their families through literacy education. By working with children as they learn to read and supporting their reading journey, Kids Soar aims to ensure that no child grows up to face the challenge of illiteracy.	One time or Monthly
LEAP	LEAP nurtures our food community. We do this to create an equitable food and farming system which prioritizes health and abundance by supporting community initiatives, markets, farms, and farmers.	One time, monthly, weekly, or yearly.
Make Roanoke	MAKE Roanoke exists to promote knowledge, skill, and creativity in science, technology, crafts, and the arts. We strive to foster these values in an inclusive and safe environment. To these ends, MAKE Roanoke shall provide the following: An inclusive and collegial social framework for members to inspire and collaborate with others of similar interests; A maintained communal space providing safe access to tools and supplies for projects; and Events to promote education and collaboration between members and the greater Roanoke community.	One time or monthly
Points of Diversity	Points of Diversity promotes Inclusion in the Roanoke Valley. Our goal is to create a livable community that respects and celebrates all of our Diversity. Our current plans are (1) continuing Community Dialogue on topics of difference, and (2) providing opportunities for cross-cultural discussion and training for our community. Our past work with high school youth has shown that 90% “would like more opportunities to talk about differences in race, socio-economic class, sexual orientation and gender identity and religion.” We have plans to respond to this need and we need your help! Your tax-deductible donation will help us continue our Community Dialogue groups and outreach to schools and community groups.	One time or monthly

This list of charitable organizations is for informational purposes and are not endorsed by Virginia Tech. Please visit the charitable organization websites to determine if you wish to donate directly to them.

Charity	Mission	Donation Options
RAM House	Roanoke Area Ministries (RAM) is an interfaith non-profit that advocates for those facing or are threatened by homelessness and hunger. Founded in 1971, our doors are open for those needing care coordination, day shelter services, meals, and emergency financial assistance.	One time or monthly
Renovation Alliance	Since 1999, Renovation Alliance has been bringing volunteers and communities together to rebuild safe and healthy homes for persons in need in the Roanoke Valley.	One time or monthly
Roanoke Outside Foundation	Roanoke Outside creates economic growth, throughout Virginia’s Blue Ridge, by leveraging natural assets to attract investment and talent. Through business attraction, signature outdoor events, strategic partnerships, social offerings, and infrastructure investment Roanoke Outside seeks to establish the Roanoke Region as a place where businesses want to locate and where people want to live.	One time, monthly, quarterly, 6 months, and yearly
Roanoke Refugee Partnership	Our mission is to partner with the refugee members of the Roanoke community by providing equitable access to resources supporting economic, social, physical, and mental well-being.	One time
Roanoke Valley Horse Rescue, Inc	Help rescue neglected and starved horses. The loss of horse owners’ jobs and income is leading to more starving horses. These magnificent creatures deserve better.	One time
Ronald McDonald House – SWVA Roanoke Location	We provide a comfortable and supportive ‘home-away-from-home’ for the families of critically ill children who must leave their communities and come to the Roanoke Area for medical treatment. Serving over 700 families a year, our 18-room facility is located just 2.5 blocks from Carilion Roanoke Memorial Hospital. Our goal is to keep families together by relieving the burden of a place to stay and something to eat so they can concentrate on what’s most important, their child.	One time

This list of charitable organizations is for informational purposes and are not endorsed by Virginia Tech. Please visit the charitable organization websites to determine if you wish to donate directly to them.

Charity	Mission	Donation Options
Roanoke Valley SPCA	The Roanoke Valley SPCA is a community resource that provides pet adoption, retention, and education services in Virginia’s Blue Ridge.	One time, weekly, biweekly, monthly, quarterly, semiannually, and yearly.
Sleep in Heavenly Peace	All children deserve a safe, comfortable place to lay their heads. In Idaho and across the US, too many boys and girls go without a bed—or even a pillow—to sleep on. These children end up sleeping on couches, blankets, and even floors. This can affect their happiness and health. That’s where Sleep in Heavenly Peace comes in. We’re a group of volunteers dedicated to building, assembling and delivering top-notch bunk beds to children and families in need. Our organization has grown steadily over time, and we’re working on opening more chapters in different states to serve more people.	One time, monthly or yearly
South West Virginia Wildlife Center of Roanoke	Conserving Virginia’s wildlife through rehabilitation and release while teaching care and respect of native species. We advocate for the protection of wildlife and wild places to ensure these magnificent animals have a place alongside us for generations to come.	One time, Monthly, Annually, Bi-Annually
St. Johns Community Youth Program	CYP is an after-school and summer program for at-risk 4th-8th grade Roanoke City students. CYP encourages learning and the development of a positive self-image through a focus on holistic wellness. CYP works with community resources and Roanoke City Schools to ensure the highest quality of support for our students and families.	One time, every week, every 2 weeks, twice a month (1st and 15th), Monthly, Quarterly, and Annually
The Least of These Ministries	The Least of These Ministry (TLOT) is a non-profit organization that strives to make a positive difference in the lives of the homeless community in the Roanoke Valley. Its mission is to meet men and women living on the streets and serve them with spiritual, physical, and emotional support in the name of Jesus Christ.	One time or monthly

This list of charitable organizations is for informational purposes and are not endorsed by Virginia Tech. Please visit the charitable organization websites to determine if you wish to donate directly to them.

Charity	Mission	Donation Options
Tudor House	The Tudor Family shares Louis’s story in order to shed light on the seriousness of mental illness and the lack of community mental health resources. Their hope is to save lives through suicide prevention and mental health outreach. Tudor House will also assist families as they navigate the difficult waters of helping a loved one who struggles with their mental health.	One time
United Way of Roanoke Valley	United Way of Roanoke Valley improves lives by mobilizing the caring power of people in our community. We strive to elevate 10,000 families to self-sufficiency by 2030.	One time, Monthly, Weekly, Bi-weekly, quarterly, or yearly
Ursula's Café	Ursula’s Café is a non-profit organization under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code which seeks to provide community space, quality food, and artistic programming for people in the Roanoke area regardless of economic means. Our organization, programming, and activities should reflect the social diversity of our city as we carry out our mission of service to the community.	One time
Valley Interfaith Child Care Center	Valley Interfaith Child Care Center, Inc. believes a society that values its own future must care for its youngest and most vulnerable members. Because cognitive, physical, social, and emotional development begins at birth, VICCC strives to make the earliest and most formative experiences of children’s lives positive and rewarding. In cooperation with governments, local social service agencies, civic groups, businesses, academia, individuals, and the special support of New River Valley faith communities, VICCC’s goal is to create high-quality, affordable, educational, and nurturing care for young children (ages 6 weeks to 12 years) of income-eligible, working families in the New River Valley.	One time
West End Center	West End Center strengthens the future of youth by offering holistic programming focused on academics, health and wellness, and cultural arts in a safe and nurturing environment.	One time or Monthly

This list of charitable organizations is for informational purposes and are not endorsed by Virginia Tech. Please visit the charitable organization websites to determine if you wish to donate directly to them.

YMCA of Blue Ridge	Our mission is to put Christian principles into practice through programs that build a healthy spirit, mind and body for all. Our impact is felt every day...when an individual makes a healthy choice...when a mentor inspires a child...and when members of our community come together for the common good. The YMCA of Virginia's Blue Ridge acknowledges and embraces that Christian principles are a significant piece of our organizational mission. When defining what Christian principles mean to us as an organization we chose the ultimate Christian principle, LOVE. (I Corinthians 13:13)	One time, monthly, or yearly
------------------------------------	---	-------------------------------------

This list of charitable organizations is for informational purposes and are not endorsed by Virginia Tech. Please visit the charitable organization websites to determine if you wish to donate directly to them.